

2009 moore county “far mer of t he year ”

Justin Crownover and Lone Star Family Farms received the 2009 “Farmer of the Year” Award from the Moore County Chamber of Commerce. Justin was recognized not only as a strong producer, but someone who also places great importance on the community. Justin and the Lone Star Family Farms leadership team recognize the blessing of great community support as a contribution to their success from investing in relationships with their farming neighbors, local business, and local schools.

Farming has always been Justin’s passion and he and his team strive for high yields while preserving the Crownover traditional farm values of honesty, integrity and hard work. Justin and Lone Star Family Farms also take great pride in their employees and hold their safety and well-being in high regard. With these key elements as part of the business along with a long-term growth vision of the farm, allowed Lone Star Family Farms to be eligible for the award. A plaque and a flag that has flown over the Texas State Capital were presented in recognition by State Representative David Swinford.

Justin Crownover and Lone Star Family Farms are very humble and appreciative of this honor and value the opportunity to be leaders in the community through it.

